This study no longer appears warranted based on OTD's assessment of our staff's capability to conduct training and qualification reviews. The Technical staff is in the process of conducting training and qualification reviews at defense nuclear facilities. For example, the staff is in the process to conduct a training and qualification review at the Savannah River Site the week of Nov 17th (agenda for the review has been sent to the site). Several staff with previous experience in conducting training and qualification reviews are committed to perform this review. Additionally, there are other OTD resources capable of performing Training and Qualification reviews, e.g., former site representatives and naval officers with nuclear backgrounds.

This amendment does not, for me, warrant a level of priority to displace other activities in FY 2015 and I find the OTD feed back persuasive
